No shutdown, study for Fishing Lake's school

Fears that a visit by a team studying schools in the Northlands School Division would mean closure of the J. F. Dion School, brought a sizeable crowd of concerned residents to the Fishing Lake Metis Settlement's general meeting last Wednesday.

The study team is chaired by Gordon Elhard of Calgary and made up of Clayton Allan, Lethbridge, Peter Erasmus, McRae, Larry Ferguson, Edmonton and Evelyn Thunder, Atikameg, with executive secretary Phil Boyle of Alberta Education. They are visiting schools across the Northlands School Division to identify the education needs and aspirations of Northlands residents, community issues relating to the delivery of education, administration and governance structure of the school division, the cost of education, the achievement of students, alternative modes of delivering educational services and the feasibility of regionalizing some Northland schools with neighboring jurisdictions. A report on their findings will be made to the Minister of Education.

Elhard told the assembly that "it's fair to say that people are concerned that we have a hidden agenda, but if there is one, we haven't heard of it. We're simply here to observe what's going well and what needs improvement, and to listen to your concerns regarding education."

Larry Ferguson added his assurance that there was no hidden agenda. "We will write our report and submit it to the Minister. We came to hear you, and will be making notes and taking your concerns into consideration. Regarding rumors of the school's closure, he said "we hadn't heard that until we got here. The likelihood of closure is probably zero to nil — it's an excellently functioning school." Ferguson added that when he saw how many people were concerned about the loss of their school, "I realized

Canada Day -- what's happening

Everything is set for this weekend's Canada Day celebrations, and with a little cooperation from the weatherman, it looks like being another great success.

The Canada Day Gospel

Concert, featuring Ken and Mildred Jackson of Calgary, back again by popular demand, and a number of local performers, starts off the celebration on Sunday night at 7 p.m. in the Elementary School.

Later that evening, the A. G. Ross Arena Operating Committee hosts their annual beerfest, with music by the Patrick James Band starting at 9 p.m.

Child restraint education and enforcement project launched

An educational session on the importance and proper use of child passenger restraints in motor vehicles held in Elk Point last week is part of a new program aimed at saving lives and preventing injuries for Alberta children. The session, attended by drivers who had received tickets for incorrectly secured child passengers, was conducted by Corp. Tim Ashdown of the St. Paul RCMP and Lois Sheplawy of the Elk Point Health Unit, and was well received by the participants, according to Mrs. Sheplawy. Cst. Kathy Shindruk of Elk Point RCMP will be assisting Mrs. Sheplawy with future sessions.

A commitment to child safety is the driving force behind the new partnership of private and public Alberta agencies who have created the Child Passenger Restraint Education and Enforcement Project, the first of its kind in Canada.

Utilizing a three-prong approach of awareness, enforcement and education, this initiative addresses the non-use or incorrect use of child safety seats in vehicles. Surveys indicate that approximately 40% of infant car seats and 80% of toddler car seats used in Alberta are not properly installed or used.

The Child Passenger Restraint Education and Enforcement Project is being launched as a pilot project in five health regions and six RCMP areas including St. Paul. If successful, full provincial implementation of the program will be rolled out in the fall of 1996.

A campaign to heighten public awareness of the importance of proper and consistent use of child restraints has been launched, with the slogan, "Think the kids are buckled up right? Think again." The campaign is a collaborative effort of Alberta Health, Alberta Motor Association, Alberta Transportation and Utilities, Regional Health Authorities, the RCMP and SAFE KIDS. In addition to education and awareness, the campaign high-

Community Health Councils ready to go

SMOKY LAKE - The Lakeland Regional Health Authority (LRHA) has announced the establishment of seven Community Health Councils (CHCs). "Selected members are currently being contacted and once we have confirmation, we will announce the membership," said Rosemary Seaman, CHC coordinator.

The CHCs are designed to address the diverse health needs of residents of the Lakeland Health Region. Five of the Councils are established geographically, while CHC #6 combines the four Metis settlements and CHC #7 will address the seven First Nations groups. Councils are as follows:

#1. Fort Saskatchewan, Redwater, Radway, Gibbons, Thorhild, Bon Accord and immediate surrounding communities.

#2. Mundare, Vegreville, Willingdon, Two Hills, Andrew, Chipman, Lamont, Bruderheim and all communities within.

#3. St. Paul, Vilna, Smoky Lake, Myrnam, and all communities within.

#4. Cold Lake, Bonnyville, Glendon, Elk Point, Grand Centre and all communities within.

#5. Lac La Biche, Plamondon, Wandering River and immediate surrounding areas.

#6. Metis Settlements: Kikino, Elizabeth, Buffalo Lake and Fishing Lake.

#7. First Nations: Heart Lake, Beaver Lake, Cold Lake, Frog Lake, Long Lake, Saddle Lake and Whitefish Lake.

As directed by the former Minister of Health, the Hon. Shirley McClellan, CHCs are being established throughout the province and are an important step in the continuing restructure of the health system.

Each Council will provide an additional two-way communications conduit which will enhance existing partnerships between communities and the LRHA Board. These Councils will provide a forum for discussion of issues such as community health priorities, promotion of healthier communities and establishing links with key community groups and agencies.

"We look forward to having active and effective Community Health Councils," said Seaman. "We encourage community members to actively participate in their Council. This is an exciting time for the Lakeland Health Region."

The Lakeland Regional Health Authority was established in June 1994, to promote, maintain and improve the health of the Region's residents by ensuring appropriate, accessible and affordable health services.

It's time to be water wise

By Elk Point RCMP

Summer of 1996 is upon us and everyone is anxious to partake in summer water fun. Summer water fun also requires preparation and water safety. All parents and adults who are monitoring young children on or near the water should be extra careful as it only takes seconds for young children to be injured or die near the water. A good idea is to have your young child wear a life jacket when playing near the water. This, remember, is not a replacement for adult supervision. Also, this time of year brings out boaters and users of personal watercraft (i.e. Seadoos). Boats and watercraft must be registered, and applications can be obtained by contacting Canada Customs. If you purchase a used boat or watercraft, you must contact Canada Customs to have your name registered to the current numbers on the vessel.

Regardless of the type of boat or watercraft that you may have, it must be equipped with certain safety equipment that is in good working order, and easily acceptable. Vessels of different lengths are required to have certain equipment on board. Also, a standards decal and capacity plate are required on all vessels. To make your boating day safe and fun, stop by your local RCMP detachment and obtain a FREE copy of the Safe Boating Guide which contains valuable information on equipment requirements, safety practices, to operating regulations. Remember, the law requires you to have a lifejacket on board for every person on board, but the law does not require you to wear it. Be water smart and boat safe and ALWAYS wear your lifejacket.

Police have already started their lake patrols and will be enforcing the Criminal Code, Small Vessels Regulations as well as the Wildlife Act.

Drinking and boating don't mix any better than drinking and driving. Should you be caught and convicted of impaired operation of a vessel, you will lose your driver's licence for a period of time.

So get out and have some safe water fun, and should you require any further information on boating safety, you and call your local RCMP detachment, or the Canadian Coast Guard boat information line toll-free at 1-800-267-6687.

Summer is here — school is out — evaluation time

By Deanna Easthope

FCSS Director

How many times have you heard this statement — "Summer is here — school is out!"? For some of us it means that our younger children will be home from school and looking for "something" to do. For some of us, it means that our children are moving on to other opportunities. For our children, the end of June is really an evaluation time as they write their last exam for the year for whatever subjects they took. Evaluation time can be a scary time or it can be an exciting time.

"Did I pass? What was my mark? Oh, no, was that really my mark? Did I really get that high of a mark? How could I get that low of a mark? All of these questions and many more like them are probably questions students have asked many times over, over the years, and especially at the end of June each year.

If our children were successful — they can move on with confidence and we are able to tell them — "Well done!" For those children who struggled and didn't quite make it — we might need some help in what we say to these children.

I would like to quote some statements made by different people that help to remind me that our exams in school or life are not always "pass marks" for all of us all the time. Dottie Walters said, "Failure? I never encountered it. All I ever met were temporary setbacks." Aldous Huxley said, "Experience is not what happens to a man. It is what a man does with what happens to him." From a source unknown regarding Abraham Lincoln after losing a senate race — he said: "The path was worn and slippery. My foot slipped from under me, knocking the other our of the way, but I recovered and said to myself, 'It's a slip and not a fall.'"

Or consider these facts: Louisa May Alcott, the author of Little Women, was encouraged to find work as a servant or seamstress by her family. Beethoven handled the violin awkwardly and preferred playing his own compositions instead of improving his technique. His teacher called him helpless as a composer. Walt Disney was fired by a newspaper editor for lack of ideas. Disney also went bankrupt several times before he built Disneyland. Thomas Edison's teachers said he was too stupid to learn anything. Isaac Newton did very poorly in grade school. Leo Tolstoy, author of War and Peace, flunked out of college. He was described as "both unable and unwilling to learn." Henry Ford failed and went broke five times before he finally succeeded. Winston Churchill failed sixth grade. He did not become Prime Minister of England until he was 62, and then only after a lifetime of defeats and setbacks. His greatest contributions came when he was a "senior citizen." Babe Ruth struck out 1330 times, but he also hit 714 home runs.

From all of this, I hope you will have received the message — don't worry about failure, worry about the chances you miss when you don't even try. In other words, evaluation — it's your call.

Nutrition notes

By Shelley Miller-Hertes

Registered Dietician, Elk Point Health Centre

What can Nutrition Information Labels tell us? One of the most important pieces of information is the fat content. A general rule of thumb is 3 grams or less of fat per serving constitutes a low fat product. The serving size is listed at the top of the nutrition information label.

If you want to go one step further and calculate the percent of calories from fat in that item, here is a formula to use:

1. Number of grams of fat x 9 = total calories from fat
2. Total calories from fat divided by total calories (energy) x 100 = percent calories from fat
3. Goal is to choose products with 20-25% or lower calories from fat.

Here are two examples:

A. Stoned Wheat Thin Crackers

Serving size, 25 g = 3 1/2 crackers

Energy	106 calories
Protein	2.7 g
Fat	2.4 g
Polyunsaturates	0.1 g
Monounsaturates	0.8 g

Nutrition information: labels

Saturates	0.4 g
Cholesterol	0.0 mg
Carbohydrate	18.4 g

1. 2.4 g fat x 9 = 22 calories from fat

2. 22 calories from fat divided by 106 total calories x 100 = 21% calories from fat

Stoned Wheat Thins (salt-reduced) are a good choice for a low-fat snack.

B. Miracle Whip Salad Dressing

Serving size - 1 Tbsp.

Energy	69 calories
Protein	0.1 g
Fat	6.9 g
Polyunsaturates	2.1 g
Monounsaturates	4.3 g
Saturates	0.5 g
Cholesterol	5 mg
Carbohydrate	1.7 g

1. 6.9 g fat x 9 = 62 calories from fat

2. 62 calories from fat divided by 69 total calories x 100 = 90% calories from fat

Miracle Whip Salad Dressing is not a low-fat item. However if you buy the light or calorie-reduced version, you reduce the amount of fat and calories per serving.

Faith

By Rev. Sam Donaldson

Elk Point Community Church

The Canadian government has voted to include sexual orientation in the Canadian Charter of Rights (Bill C33).

The politicians who voted against Bill C33 did so for several reasons. Some on moral grounds. Others for economic reasons. Many felt that this was detrimental to society as it struck at the very fabric of society itself, the family.

Alan Rock's answer to the first objection was, that this is a justice and not a moral issue. His retort to the third objection was that this has nothing to do with marriage or family matters. His response to the second is by implication that if this has nothing to do with the family, then there will be on economic obligations incurred as family benefits will not be extended to gay and lesbian couples.

But is this a justice or a moral issue? Most definitely moral. Will Bill C33 have no impact on marriage, family, economics or society? It most certainly will.

After parliament had voted on Bill C33, Svend Robinson, a politician and gay rights activist, was interviewed on TV. When asked what this decision meant to the gay lobby, he replied that they would continue to seek recognition for same-sex couples and families.

Now what the gay lobby wants is that all benefits and privileges pertaining to the traditional (heterosexual) family be granted to gay and lesbian couples. This means the legitimization of same-sex marriages, equal access to spousal benefits, adoption of children, widow's pension, maternity benefits, etc.

You may feel that this is impossible. It is so absurd it could never happen. Wait and see.

The Bible speaks about certain actions being an abomination. An abomination is the perversion (reversal) of the natural order. "Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness. They have rejected the law of the Lord Almighty. Therefore the Lord's anger burns against his people and he strikes them down." Isa. 5:20-21, 24-25.

It is not only the gay community that has reversed the natural order (God's order), but also the politicians that voted in Bill C33. It is also every Canadian that supports it.

God has pronounced judgement against perversion. Will God permit our society, our nation, to "ride rough shod" over his law and his word?

God is long-suffering. He waits for repentance, personal and national. When that does not come, then judgement. What will it be for Canada? Wait and see.

Dinner explores many cultures

Elk Point Elementary's Grade 5 Social Studies students took part in an international dinner last Monday, tasting close to 40 dishes from countries around the world. Parents were also invited to come and try out the foods of many cultures, from Scandinavian lefse and Bavarian meatballs to East Indian chicken curry and Filipino noodles.

The Grade 5 Social Studies curriculum's Topic C deals with "Canada's Links With Other Countries," and with the help of teacher Bernice Capjack-Hugo, these students had the opportunity to end the school year in this subject by learning about the foods of many lands and reflecting the cultural backgrounds of the students.

SO MANY CHOICES -- Students had a wide variety of foods from countless ethnic backgrounds to choose from at their International Dinner last Monday.

Heinsburg School reporter says goodbye

By Fiona Daniels

Heinsburg Student Journalist

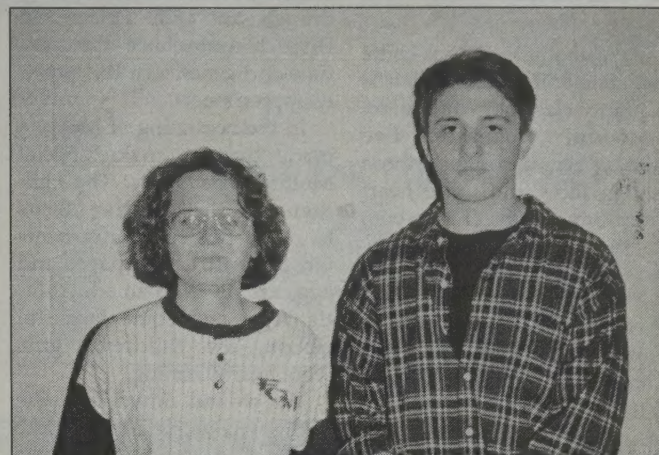

We are now in our last few days of school. With summer so close, we have been preparing for final exams and making plans for the summer. For some of us, we have also been getting ready to say goodbye to Heinsburg School.

This year, I will be one of the students leaving high school and entering 'the real world.' Although all of us have different aspirations, we all share one common goal. That is to follow our dreams and excel in whatever we choose to do.

The goals people in my class hold are as different and varied as a world bareback champion to a petroleum engineer. As for myself, I plan to attend Grant MacEwan College next year to take Native Communications and hope to eventually become a radio broadcaster.

I have enjoyed writing a weekly article and I hope you've enjoyed reading it too. Have a good summer, everyone!

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS -- Two F. G. Miller Grade 12 students have qualified for scholarships from the University of Alberta. Christina Sereda is one of the inaugural recipients of the Chancellor's Citation, a $15,000 scholarship which recognizes Christina's outstanding success in both her academic and personal life. Justin Conrad has qualified for a 1996-97 Entrance Leadership Scholarship, on the basis of his extraordinary ability to balance academic excellence and outstanding leadership qualities. Congratulations to two very deserving individuals.

The Greater Lakeland Rural Crime Watch

Rural Crime Watch is a program that has been supported by the RCMP of Alberta for over 15 years. It is a program where people of the rural areas are recruited to assist the police in solving and preventing crime in the lower populated areas.

These people are the eyes and ears of the police to help solve such crimes as thefts, break-ins, cattle rustling and suspicious activities.

The police also inform these people of known or reported crimes by way of a phone fan-out system.

This system works when a crime in the rural area is reported to the local Detachment, the investigating member takes the pertinent information, puts it into a computer and it is then sent to the rural crime watch members to be on the lookout for either property or persons responsible for the crime.

What's news at Jack and Jill Playschool

By Diane Pashulka
Playschool instructor

Well, another year has come and gone and all that is left is an empty classroom and many wonderful memories. I've already begun to miss those smiling faces and those heart wrenching words, "I love you, Teacher." Those are the memories I will cherish forever.

Playschool has been very busy over the last couple of months. Our theme was community helpers and we made visits to many of the various businesses around town. Thanks to Fins, Feathers and Furry Things, the RCMP, Co-Op, Dr. Adams' office, Parkview Extended Care, the Public Library, Fire Hall, Kindergarten, Alberta Treasury Branch and Elk Point and District Ambulance for their time and generosity. It is greatly appreciated.

In the beginning of May we made time to make special Mother's Day gifts. The children used their creative talents to make flower arrangements out of construction paper and egg cartons. With an added little verse and some beautiful ribbon, the children's gifts were heartwarming.

We wound down the year with two main field trips. Yvette Laux arranged three farms for us to visit: Heralds, her own (Demchuk's) and Mudryk's game farm. The children were in their glory. The tours were wonderful and very exciting, despite the mud. At Heralds, we saw many different animals, from the very well known ducks, bunnies and sheep, etc. to the less known, such as ferrets, chinchillas etc. The children didn't know what to pet first. We then moved on to Demchuks, where we saw a day-old baby moose and ostriches. Yvette showed us an ostrich egg and an emu egg. They are nothing like a chicken egg and the kids tried their best to see inside.

At Don Mudryk's game farm, we saw white elk, buffalo and a very large tiger, a family pet that had to be put down, but is kept very close to them.

Mudryks provided a wonderful lunch for us, which we enjoyed tremendously. Thanks to those that were part of the tours and who made the day a very special, entertaining one. We will remember it forever. Thanks to Jayson Bates who gave up two days to drive bus for us. Thanks to Yvette for organizing the trips, she has been a Godsend all year. We are going to miss her deeply and we wish her all the best in the future.

For our year-end party we went bowling to St. Paul and then to Legasse Park where we played and had a picnic. I didn't know I had such talented bowlers. The kids were excellent. It was a lot of fun. Thanks to the bowling centre for their time and consideration.

Special thanks, as always, go to the children and parents who made my year a memorable one.

Remembering hopefully all those I wanted to thank, I will say goodbye. Remember, registration will be taken again in September, so you can contact the playschool at 724-2400. Good luck to Playschool in the fall, and I want to wish everyone a great summer. KEEP COOL!!

ALL ABOUT THE AMBULANCE -- Playschool students found out what equipment is carried in and what the personnel do, when Elk Point and District Ambulance displayed their unit to the playschool students recently, as the students were getting to know the community.

PLAYSCHOOLERS VISIT A FARM -- Jack and Jill Playschool students enjoyed their recent farm visits, and were very excited to meet all the animals, both familiar and unusual.

TIC talk

By Sherry Pelech

Tourist Information Clerk

Canada Day is next Monday and as usual there is much planned for that day in and around Elk Point. The Chamber of Commerce will again be holding a PANCAKE BREAKFAST in front of the liquor store beside Home Town Grocers. We will be serving from 8:30 to 11:00 a.m.

At noon there will be a PARADE, organized by the Elk Point Lions Club, with a decorated bike competition, clown, band, floats, etc.

Following the parade, there will be a FARMERS' MARKET AND CRAFT SALE from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. in the arena, and starting at 2:00 p.m., ENTERTAINMENT featuring dancers and music, CHILDREN'S GAMES AND ACTIVITIES in the arena.

In addition, Steve Andrishak, owner of the PIONEER MUSEUM tells us he will have his museum open for tours all afternoon. This would be an excellent opportunity to take friends and relatives to view this unique treasure-trove.

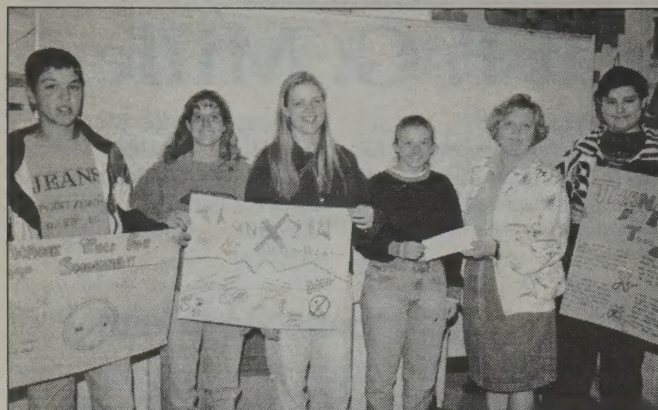

If you are looking for a great way to wind up the day after all the activities, why not round up a group of family or friends and call Vince Behr at BIRCH HILL QUEEN RIVER TOURS? (You can also enjoy a ride on the river on Sunday, when Vince will be going out every hour from noon to 6:00 p.m., no appointment necessary for the Sunday tours.)

The TIC will also be open all Canada Day afternoon, following the breakfast (although we may steal a few minutes to watch the parade first). We should soon have brochures outlining the whole weekend's activities.

And a special notice to all those who may have read the travel articles recently published in the Calgary Herald and the Edmonton Journal — no, our Peter Fidler statue had not shrunk in all the rain. He still stands a proud 30 feet tall (34 with the base) not the paltry 9 feet as reported in the newspapers. We hope a flurry of letter-writing will straighten out Calgary Herald reporter, Debra Cummings.

Also, please note a change of date from the events calendars in our Lake Country and Heart of the Lakeland brochures. Whitney Lake Rodeo has been moved from July 6 and 7 to July 20 and 21.

Canada Day -- what's up?

Chamber of Commerce Pancake Breakfast on Main Street north of 50th Avenue, where you can enjoy pancakes, sausages and the trimmings for $1, from 8:30 to 11:00 a.m.

The Lions Club Parade, preceded by the kids' Bicycle Parade and led by the Al Azhar Band, heads out down the route at noon.

After the parade, head on up to the A.G. Ross Arena for beef on a bun and the Canada Day Farmers' Market and Craft Sale, 1:00 to 4:00 p.m., and entertainment for all ages starting at 2:00 p.m. Crackers the Clown with her wonderful balloon animals, face painting, and games with Popcorn the Clown will keep the youngsters busy while the adults enjoy a stage performance packed with dancing and music.

Come on out and help us celebrate Canada's 129th birthday!

BIKE DRAW WINNER -- John Capjack was congratulated by Sharon Smith of Home Town Grocers, Roger Smith of Footprints and Lo Anne Shiers of Fins, Feathers and Furry Things on his win of the Plaza 75 Mall's recent bike draw.

No shutdown, just study for school

how important it was to you."

Clayton Allan has "been in the education business for 25 years" and told the gathering that "the procedure to close a school is quite different than what we're going through. That's not what this is all about. We're looking at the governance of the Northlands School Division and ways to make education better for Northlands students. If [school closure] did happen, you'd have a lot of notice up front. This is not it, I assure you."

Fishing Lake School Board chairman Ken Desjarlais told the study team that his community members "are happy the way things are going now. We're doing great here." Other local residents made suggestions regarding communication with other schools in the area with an eye to matching curriculums, so that there is a smoother transition when students leave J. F. Dion to further their education in higher grades. Other concerns included teacherages, insurance costs for kindergarten and Head Start program busing, and costs of board meetings.

Evelyn Thunder thanked the parents for their input, and said "anything you parents want to see in this school, take it to the Northlands Board." She added that the study's purpose is to see how people would like education in Northlands improved. "Not all the schools are like this. Here, you walk in you feel it — the children are open and well behaved."

Ferguson noted that there are "concerns in some schools over what we're achieving. The bottom line is education: are they getting what they need?"

Allan said achievement tests results from all Northlands schools were studied, and show "dramatic changes at J. F. Dion in the last 5 or 6 years. We don't see that from all Northlands schools. I'd like to can what you're doing and take it to the other schools."

The study team had previously met with the Settlement Council and the Fishing Lake School Board, prior to touring the school and meeting teachers and students. Larry Ferguson commented that they had been "received very well, with a lot of candor. We can't help being impressed by the ambience, the attitude of students and the way the staff gets along. You can tell, it's very positive. There's a committed staff and the school committee working together. It's been a remarkable day."

IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY OF NICK A. BOCHON

A year has now passed,
Yet it seems like yesterday,
When you were talking
Bringing good cheer to those around you,
Now in a quiet country grave yard,
Lies the one we respected, trusted and loved.

May the winds of love blow softly,
And whisper so you can hear.
That we miss you and wish you were here.

So many things have happened.
That I long to sit and talk with you.
I stand at the grave and talk to the wind
But I have to turn and walk away, and leave you there, our lives will never be the same. Rest in peace

Forever with us Mary, Evon, Jim & Family
Tony, Yvette & Family

THANK YOU

We would like to thank everyone who helped make our celebration of our 50th Wedding Anniversary date such a memorable event.

All the friends, neighbors and relatives who came to our party, it meant so much to us that you were there to spend the afternoon with us.

Thanks for all the gifts, cards of well wishes, phone calls and all who sent cards and were unable to attend.

Special thanks to our children who put it all together and made it a day to treasure.

Librarian

Only a few days to go until Camp Readsallot takes off. The library is now accepting registrations. Where else can kids get a summer of fun (and a little knowledge) for the low price of a single loonies? Sessions begin July 2 and continue until August 22 on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

I'm having a hard time keeping up with the new books that are arriving at the library. Here are a few in adult non-fiction:

In the Name of Sorrow and Hope by Noa Ben Artzi-Pelossof, granddaughter of slain Israeli prime minister Yitzhak Rabin, is reflection on what it is like to be young and Israeli. This audiobook, read by the author, also tells of her life, her family and her grandfather.

The Debt-Free Graduate by Murray Baker provides timely advice for Canadian post-secondary students on how to get a degree without getting a staggering debt as well.

Wild Game Cookbook by Doug and Peggy Kazulak features nearly 120 recipes that have been field-tested over an open fire.

In memory of our dear son, brother, uncle and friend, who was taken from us suddenly on July 2, 1989, Dennis Berg.

Life has not been easy

We learn to live with it because it will never change
We wish we could hold you
And hear your sweet voice
And see again that wonderful smile
You always seem to share
We will always be thankful for all the wonderful memories
you have left with us
No one can take them away
They will never be erased
For in our hearts you will always have a very special place
And in our arms you will always be when we reach out for the glow
For your presence will always be for us to keep and hold.
Be happy son in your new life
And one day we will share
Our life again it will blend
And be as it was before.

County of St. Paul No. 19

ROADSIDE SPRAYING PROGRAM

The County of St. Paul No. 19 Agricultural Service Board will be starting their 1996 Roadside Spraying Program in the month of July. This program is in place to control the spread of Noxious Weeds along the Municipal road allowances.

If for any reason you do not want the road allowance along your property sprayed, you must contact the County Office at 645-3301 and also post the areas that you do not want sprayed far enough in advance, so that the operators have enough time to shut down their equipment. "Do Not Spray" signs are available at the County Office.

Ratepayers that do not want their road allowance sprayed, will be held responsible for the control of all Noxious Weeds within that area.

Road allowances along sensitive crops will not be sprayed until a later date.

For more information, contact Dennis or Larry at 645-3301.

Child restraint education

lights the penalties for non-use or misuse.

Those penalties will be enforced by the RCMP who are exercising a zero tolerance level for non-compliance to the child passenger restraint laws. Each time an RCMP officer stops a vehicle, all child passengers in that vehicle will be checked to ensure they are properly restrained. A ticket will be issued for each child who is not correctly secured.

Drivers who receive tickets will be offered the option of attending a 45 minute educational session on child passenger restraints conducted by local health units and the RCMP, in addition to the standard ticket responses. The session will address the importance of restraints, as well as the correct ways to use them for children of every age level. If the driver receives a ticket for a child between the ages of 6 and 15, that child will be required to attend the educational session with the driver. The intent is to enhance the safety of children by ensuring that current drivers, as well as drivers of the future, understand their responsibilities to passengers in their vehicles.

After the driver attends the session, the RCMP will forward a recommendation for withdrawal of the ticket to the Crown Prosecutor.

The educational component of the program is also supported by the Alberta Motor Association Consumer Information Department, which provides the public with accurate information about child safety restraints through their hotline at 1-800-222-6578. As well, each health unit has staff to assist drivers and parents concerned over whether their child's safety seat is correctly installed and properly used.
